Batian's View: The Core Crew

Fred Roberts

Director

From 1986 to 1999, Fred Roberts worked as a Branch Director and Field Instructor for the National Outdoor Leadership School (NOLS) East Africa branch. Fred is the Founder, Director and Lead Facilitator at MOYO Team Building Solutions, LLC. based in Tucson, Arizona, USA. He is also a Co-Director of Batian's View.

Elizabeth Goodwin

Director

Elizabeth is the Co-Founder and Co-Director of Batian's View. She is an accomplished gender and community development practitioner, with vast experience in Africa. Elizabeth leads the general management, business development and community engagement at Batian's View.

Peter Kafuna

Programme Coordinator

One of Kenya's most respected outdoor leaders, Peter Kafuna was a field instructor for NOLS for 11 years in Africa and America, and served as the Operations Manager of NOLS East Africa for three years. Mr. Kafuna is currently a member of the Professional Trainers Association of Kenya, a group that is dedicated towards improving industrial learning and performance of professionals from various sectors and industries.

Mary Wairimu

Programme Coordinator

Mary Wairimu was the equipment manager for NOLS East Africa between 1992 and 1999. She also gained vast experience working at two other NOLS branches in America. Her expert knowledge of field equipment and working with large groups helps all of our clients enjoy a comfortable, safe and memorable experience at Batian's View.

Many of the activities at Batian's View will require you to push further. We believe this is only possible with support and reassurance from people you can trust. Our Crew of expert facilitators has been put together with this in mind. They are charismatic, patient and most importantly, trained to look out for your safety.

There is a thin line between the impossible and the possible – that is determination.

Ogwo David Emenike, Nigerian poet.
